

We are Committed to | #StayAndDeliver

World Vision Afghanistan

Six-Month Report FY23 (October 2022 - March 2023)

Humanitarian Needs in Afghanistan Today

World Vision Afghanistan's Last 6 Months

Support Offices

WV Australia, WV Austria, WV Germany, WV Hong Kong, WV Japan, WV Korea, WV Netherlands, WV New Zealand, WV Singapore, WV Switzerland, WV Taiwan, WV UK & WV US

Our Staff: 659 staff (474 male & 185 female), 13 international staff (11 male & 2 female)

Budget

Total Expenditure: US$12,527,110 (cash projects) + US$24,568,300 (GIK)

Sector-Based Expenditure

Funding % by Donors (cash projects)

World Vision Afghanistan

Six-Month Report FY23 (October 2022 – March 2023)

World Vision Afghanistan Impact by Sector

WASH

11 health centres were provided with WASH facilities

30 new water supply systems were constructed & 45 were rehabilitated

67,736 individuals were provided with access to clean water

285 household latrines were constructed for vulnerable families

4 water supply systems & WASH facilities were constructed in 4 schools benefitting 3,928 students

Food Security & Livelihood

78,673 households received cash assistance to improve their food security

360 farmers in drought affected communities benefited from improved food production

1,965 farmers benefited from improved farming practices

900 acutely malnourished children received nutrition food assistance

360 households including those headed by women, received diversified sources of food

Health

238,043 individuals received primary healthcare services

46,721 women received pre- and post-pregnancy services

199,309 individuals attended health education

60,646 individuals referred to receive better health services

15,836 women and under 5 years old children received vaccinations services

Education

37,050 children received education support in 1,235 community-based education programmes

1,200 children benefited from early childhood development programmes

15,293 students received student kits

500 teachers received teacher kits

Nutrition

60,646 children under five received screening for malnutrition services

2,235 children with severe acute malnutrition & 5,824 children with moderate acute malnutrition received treatment

63,910 women received nutrition screening & Infant and Young Child Feeding counselling

Protection

33,182 children & adults benefited from protection assistance

72 health & child protection staff & community volunteers received training on psychosocial support & child protection.

Advocacy

- 189 female staff received staff care counselling sessions to overcome the stress they faced as the result of recent restrictions on women.
- 4 female staff shared their feelings, concerns and asks with World Vision International President and CEO, Andrew Morley, through an online session.
- World Vision Afghanistan National Director, Asuntha Charles, visited some Support Offices and participated in some forums, such as European Humanitarian Forum, where she advocated for children's rights, particularly of girl children, and demanded the global community to stand with Afghan children.
- All staff received their salaries during the suspension period.