Key messages

- As of December 2018, Tanzania hosts more than 300,000 refugees from Burundi and the Democratic Republic of Congo. About 50% are children and require humanitarian assistance to access food and other basic needs. The refugees are hosted in 3 camps (Mtendeli, Nyarugusu and Nduta) which experience overcrowding and competition for limited resources.
- World Vision's response reached more than 170,000 refugees in January 2019 through General Food Distribution and nutrition assistance through the Supplementary Feeding Programme.

What World Vision is doing

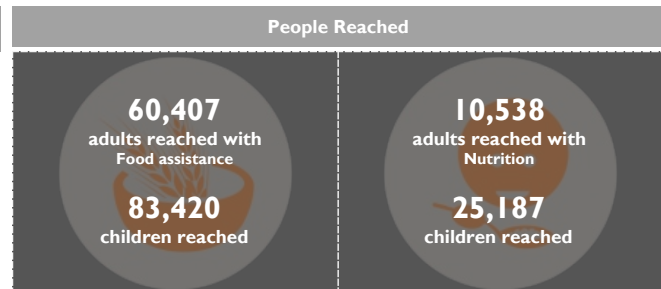

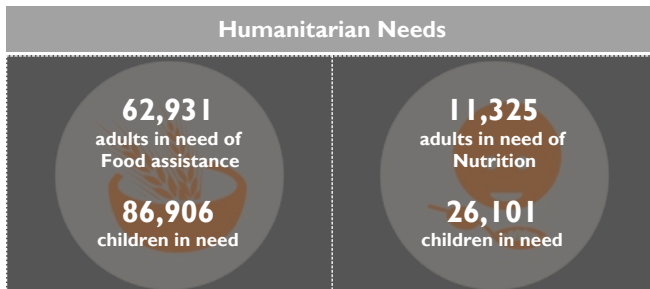

Food assistance

- World Vision distributed 2981.33MT of food to more than 140,000 refugees at Nyarugusu refugee camp,

Nutrition

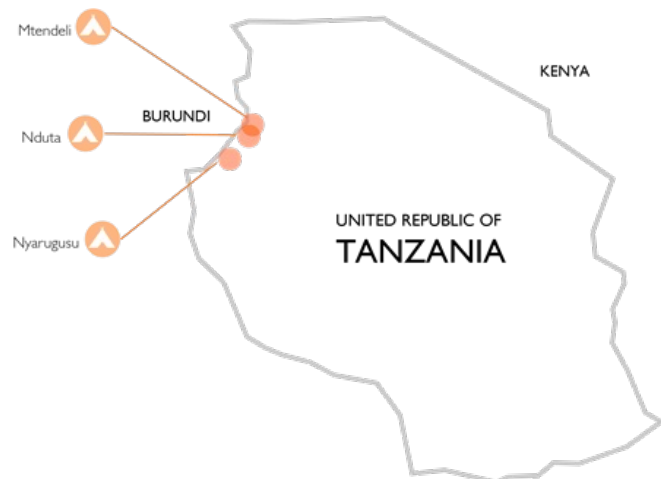

- World Vision supported more than 30,000 people with nutrition assistance through the Supplementary Feeding Programme at Nduta and Mtendeli refugee camps.

Gaps and funding requirements

World Vision Tanzania is requesting US$ 1,021,250 to expand its response activities. So far, it has received US$ 721,250 and is requesting an additional US$ 300,000 to close the gap and reach more people in need.
